

CARON WHEELER

TWO-TIME GRAMMY AWARD-WINNING SINGER/SONGWRITER

Caron Wheeler is a two-time Grammy Award-winning singer/songwriter, producer, advocate and humanitarian. Caron has been involved with music, international causes and concerns for well over twenty years. Caron does not just write music and sing songs ... she lives to effectuate change! Caron Wheeler's voice first caught collective and international attention in 1989 with the British group, Soul II Soul.

Caron Wheeler is the singular voice that captivated the world with her performances of the Grammy Award-winning, multi-platinum "Keep On Movin" and "Back to Life" smash hits -- two of her most popular, signature songs that are till global favorites heard everyday around the world. Both songs are indeed anthems that often help others to persevere beyond challenges and struggles. The songs have been performed at an presidential inaugural ball for President Obama on January 20, 2009, and at international festivals, gala benefits, professional league ball games, and as part of commercials and motion picture soundtracks. Back To Life has recently been sampled and recorded by Fat Joe (featuring Young Jeezy), Estelle, and Big Boi.

Caron Wheeler's voice can also be heard during the opening promo of "The Michael Baisden Show" -- a nationally syndicated radio program airing weekdays, and broadcast locally in New York City on WRKS 98.7 Kiss-FM beginning at 2 p.m. Caron is currently prepping for a documentary/reality show, and she is also planning to make her Broadway debut in early 2011. New Caron Wheeler music and Soul II Soul music are expected to released later this year. Caron is now a New Yorker, by way of London.
