Trading Stocks. Cash in your worthless Wall Street stocks for a Caribbean vacation. Elite Island resorts will accept your devalued portfolio as payment for stays this year at any of their seven seaside properties. The resort will take up to $5,000 worth of any of the 400 stocks — including bank, retail and tech stocks — listed on its website, and give you credit based on the stock's worth as of Oct. 31, 2008.
