The Luxe List

Horseback riding by a Mayan ruin, near the Ka'ana Resort in Belize

10 Belize

Relax Amid Jungle Splendor

THE LUXURY Surrounded by spectacular mountains in Belize's Cayo District, the boutique 15-room Ka'ana Resort is an extravagant jungle outpost that doesn't scrimp on modern conveniences. Indeed, its attractive Casitas and Balam lodgings start at 300 square feet, and feature flat-screen TVs, iPod docks, espresso machines, free Wi-Fi, and a private terrace with tropical garden and pool views. This creates a perfect base from which to explore the surrounding tropical wilderness.

THE VALUE The resort's Spring Package offers terrific value, with rates from $295/night per person (based on a minimum 3-night stay). This includes a full-day guided tour of an ancient treetop Mayan city; a half-day outing with river tubing, zip-lining, and zorbing (rolling down hills inside a giant rubber ball); a 30-minute spa treatment each day; daily breakfast; and packed lunches.

THE CATCH This is not a beach resort.
